Brent's experience ranges from home building, high end cabinets and built-ins to award winning one of a kind specialty furniture. Today, he offers doors and furniture to those discriminating customers who seek the finest available furniture to compliment their homes, offices and churches.

His long standing repeat business attests to the personal service he provides in design, production and delivery.

Brent

"We have access to the finest solid woods and veneers available and have worked with many, unique woods, both exotic and domestic. We can design and produce in any style needed. All work is signed and dated. My goal is to give customers what they want."

- Brent

"For a unique experience, visit Brent's shop and show room. One of the best woodworking facilities I've ever had the pleasure of seeing."
